Enclosed is the original I-797 approval. The complete H1-B petition copy has been sent by email. Please give the original notice to your employee and maintain a complete copy for your employee's records.

I-9 Process

The employee may use the H-1B Approval Notice for the I-9 verification process as listed on the List of Acceptable documents noted on the I-9 form. Please note the expiration date on your tickler system as an alert for reverification purposes.

Also, please be aware that your employee's H-1B is valid from 02/24/2018 to 02/23/2019. Upon expiration you will need to extend their H-1B if they remain your employee. To do so, please contact us within 180 days or sooner, of their expiration. H-1B employees are eligible for extensions under the H status for a total period of six years. The H-1B employee's status may be extended beyond the allotted six-year period if they have reached a certain stage in their permanent residence process. Please contact our office to discuss.

Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact us. It was a pleasure being of service to you.

RE: Approval Notice for H-1B petition – Kiran Kumar Gunturu

Dear Sir,

We are pleased to enclose the original U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services ("USCIS") Form I-797A indicating the approval of your H-1B petition. You will receive the original I-797A approval notice from your employer; the perforated lower portion of the approval notice is an Arrival/Departure Record (I-94 card). You should keep this notice with your Form I-94 in your passport in a safe place. The USCIS issues an I-94 card either at the time of inspection upon arrival to the United States or through approval of a nonimmigrant petition in the United States. When you enter the United States, you will be issued an electronic I-94 card. You should always print out the I-94 from the CBP website as soon as you arrive in the U.S. You must print out the I-94 immediately, not only for proof of status, but to review the I-94 in case there is an error by CBP. If an error is detected timely, the CBP will correct it at the port of entry.

VALIDITY PERIOD

The validity period noted on the Form I-94 card dictates the length of time the traveler may remain in the United States. If you want to stay longer than the date authorized by your Form I-94, you may be eligible for an extension with the USCIS. Your H-1B status is now valid from 02/24/2018 to 02/23/2019.  If you filed a change of status in the U.S., your status change is effective as per the validity date noted above. Your employer may need to reissue your I-9 for signature.

Please contact this office six months prior to the expiration of your status so that we can prepare an extension of status, if necessary.

VISA INFORMATION

Although you do not need a visa to stay in the United States you need a valid visa to reenter the United States. The next time you TRAVEL OUTSIDE the United States, you may need to obtain an H-1B visa from a U.S. consulate. Please advise us of your travel plans as far in advance of your departure as possible.

To obtain an H-1B work visa you must appear for an appointment at a U.S. consulate. Please visit the website of the U.S. consulate where you will be applying for your visa to confirm procedures that are specific to that consulate, especially regarding payment of visa fees and scheduling appointments. can find links to each consulate's website through the U.S. Department of State's website here: <http://www.usembassy.gov/>.

Follow the consulate's online instructions to schedule an appointment, noting that you (and your family members, if applicable) can be scheduled together in one appointment. Most consulates require each visa applicant to complete an online form called a DS-160 (see below) before they will schedule an appointment.

Once the interview is scheduled, you must bring a "visa application package" to the interview. The package must contain the following:

1. Original H-1B approval notice;
2. Copy of the H-1B petition filed with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services;
3. Passport, which should be valid for at least six months beyond the interview date. Also bring any expired passports you still have that contain previous U.S. visas (if any);
4. Photograph, which should conform to the specifications listed here: <http://travel.state.gov/content/passports/en/passports/photos/photo-examples.html>;
5. DS-160 Confirmation Page(s)—complete Form DS-160, available on the U.S. Embassy website at <https://ceac.state.gov/genniv/>. The DS-160 is a form which provides important information about you and your family (if any) for the embassy. Each family member must complete a Form DS-160, and pay the required visa application fees. You are applying as the Principal Applicant (H-1B), and family members are applying as derivative family members (H-4). The form is very frustrating and "user unfriendly." Embassies urge you to save your work as you proceed through the form, to keep it from "timing out" and losing your work.
6. Fee receipts—please follow instructions on the Embassy website for making the visa fee payments. Citizens of certain countries may also have to pay a "reciprocity fee" to the Embassy. Please consult the U.S. Department of State website at <http://travel.state.gov/content/visas/en/fees/fees-visa-services.html> to determine whether you and/or your family members will need to pay an additional visa "reciprocity fee" for your visa category. Once you have made the payments, print out the receipts for you and each family member and bring them to the interview.
7. Proof of maintenance of status—if the H-1B principal applicant has been in H-1B status in the U.S. prior to the appointment, bring proof that the H-1B principal applicant maintained lawful status in the U.S. (e.g. recent pay stubs, etc.).
8. Marriage certificate (H-4 spouse) and birth certificate(s) (H-4 children)—if your spouse and/or children are applying for H-4 visas, they will need to bring the original marriage certificate (spouse) and birth certificate(s) (children), along with English translations. A child's birth certificate must clearly show who the parents are.

REGISTRATION REQUIREMENT

INA § 262 requires almost all foreign nationals in the U.S. "register" with the proper government agency. Registration happens when someone is admitted into the U.S. at the port of entry or border or if someone's status in the U.S. is extended or changed. INA § 264(e) mandates every individual over the age of 18 to carry their "registration" documents with them at all times.

You are required to have your immigration documents with you. If law enforcement or immigration officials ask to see your documents, you should present copies of all the current immigration related documents, including any receipt notices for extensions.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me. Again, congratulations on obtaining your H-1B approval.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be 'Lakshmi Challa', written over a horizontal line.

Notice Type: Approval Notice
Class: H1B
Valid from 02/24/2018 to 02/23/2019

The above petition and change of status have been approved. The status of the named foreign worker(s) in this classification is valid as indicated above. The foreign worker(s) can work for the petitioner, but only as detailed in the petition and for the period authorized. Changes in employment or training may require you to file a new Form I-129 petition. Since this employment or training authorization stems from the filing of this petition, separate employment or training authorization documentation is not required. The I-94 attached below may contain a grace period of up to 10 days before, and up to 10 days after the petition validity period for the following classifications: CW-1, E-1, E-2, E-3, H-1B, H-2B, H-3, L-1A, L-1B, O-1, O-2, P-1, P-2, P-3, TN-1, and TN-2. H-2A nonimmigrants may contain a grace period of up to one week before and 30 days after the petition validity period. The grace period is a period of authorized stay but does not provide the beneficiary authorization to work beyond the petition validity period. The decision to grant a grace period and the length of the granted grace period is discretionary, final and cannot be contested on motion or appeal. Please contact the IRS with any questions about tax withholding.

The petitioner should keep the upper portion of this notice. The lower portion should be given to the worker. He or she should keep the right part with his or her Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record. The I-94 portion should be given to the U.S. Customs and Border Protection when he or she leaves the United States. The left part is for his or her records. A person granted a change of status who leaves the U.S. must normally obtain a visa in the new classification before returning. The left part can be used in applying for the new visa. If a visa is not required, he or she should present it, along with any other required documentation, when applying for reentry in this new classification at a port of entry or pre-flight inspection station. The petitioner may also file Form I-824, Application for Action on an Approved Application or Petition, to request that we notify a consulate, port of entry, or pre-flight inspection office of this approval.

The approval of this visa petition does not in itself grant any immigration status and does not guarantee that the alien beneficiary will subsequently be found to be eligible for a visa, for admission to the United States, or for an extension, change, or adjustment of status.

THIS FORM IS NOT A VISA AND MAY NOT BE USED IN PLACE OF A VISA.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.
